PART OF OUR LOCAL COMMUNITY SINCE 2014

Chartwell Deerview Crossing is a warm and caring retirement residence in Hamilton. Our contemporary home offers a flexible continuum of care environment, where you can choose from independent supportive living services or dedicated Memory Living. For couples, having multiple levels of care under one roof makes it easy to remain closely connected while receiving the right level of support for your personal needs and lifestyle, including delicious and nutritious dining, housekeeping and much more.

Our desirable location in Hamilton Mountain West is bordered by well-kept homes, forest and a landscaped back garden with walking paths. Though greenspace is abundant, we're also near a variety of convenient amenities on Rymal Road.

OUR UNIQUE LIFESTYLE

At Chartwell Deerview Crossing, you can lead the engaging retirement lifestyle you desire. We offer a variety of on-site amenities where you can relax, socialize, and pursue your goals, including a fitness facility, outdoor courtyard, bistro for hot beverages and snacks, demonstration kitchen, wine-making room, billiards and an open-concept library. Many leisure experiences are also available to participate in at will—from exercise classes, hobby groups and gardening to themed meals, live entertainment and outings in Hamilton. Whether it's having a conversation over a delicious meal, laughing together over a card game in the bistro, or meeting new friends during an activity, you'll find your social network will expand as soon as you become a part of our supportive community of residents and staff.
